Heinrich August Winkler

Professor of Modern History, Humboldt-Universitat, Berlin

The Long Way West: A Farewell to the German Question

Tuesday, October 2, 2007
12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.
Encina Ground Floor Conference Room
Encina Hall, E008
Stanford University

Heinrich August Winkler has studied history, philosophy, and public law in Tubingen, Heidelberg, and Munster. He was associate professor at the Freie Universitat in Berlin in 1970-72 and then professor of modern history in Freiburg until 1991. He has been at the Humboldt-Universitat in Berlin since 1992, and has been a visiting scholar in Princeton, at the Wilson Center in Washington, at the Institute for Advanced Studies in Berlin, and at the Historisches Kolleg in Munich. He is the author of numerous works including “Germany: The Long Road West,” for which he won the Friedrich Schiedel Prize for Literature in 2002.

Presented by the Forum on Contemporary Europe and the Goethe Institute of San Francisco.

Lunch will be provided. To RSVP go to: http://fce.stanford.edu/events/registration/4937/