SCHEDULE AND SPEAKER ORDER

RACE AND ETHNICITY: MARKING DIFFERENCE IN EUROPE AND THE U.S.
January 14, 2011
Stanford Humanities Center, Levinthal Hall
1:30-5:00 pm

OPENING REMARKS: Roland Hsu (The Europe Center) 1:35 – 1:45 (10 min)

PANEL I: RACE AND ETHNICITY IN PUBLIC DISCOURSE IN THE UNITED STATES AND FRANCE
1:45-3:00 pm

Organizing Questions:
1. What is the place of race/ethnicity in the public discourse of countries with a civic conception of citizenship?
2. Does collecting racial/ethnic data promote ethnic division and conflict or provide needed demographic data for the forging of successful multi-cultural, multi-racial societies.

Chair and Respondent:
David Palumbo-Liu (Comparative Literature) 1:45 (5 min)

Panelists:
Hazel Markus (Psychology) 1:50 (12 min)
Ounia Doukoure (Law) 2:02 (12 min)
Matt Snipp (Sociology) 2:14 (12 min)
Cecile Alduy (French & Italian) 2:26 (12 min)
Response: David 2:38 (7 min)
Discussion: 2:45 (20 min)

BREAK: 3:00-3:15 PM (15 MIN)

PANEL II: CITIZENSHIP AND BELONGING IN THE UNITED STATES AND THE NEW EUROPE
3:15-4:30 pm

Organizing Questions:
1. How and why are some people included and others excluded in the imagined community of the European Union? In the United States?
2. How is recent immigration reshaping racial/ethnic identity and ideas of belonging in the US and Europe?

Chair and Respondent:
Ramón Saldívar (English and Comp. Lit.) 3:15 (5 min)

Panelists:
• Paula Moya (English) 3:20 (12 min)
• Pavle Levi (Art and Art History) 3:32 (12 min)
• Monica McDermott (Sociology) 3:44 (12 min)
• Amir Eshel (German/Comp. Lit.) 3:56 (12 min)
Response: Ramon 4:08 (7 min.)
Discussion: 4:15 (20 min)

CLOSING REMARKS & DISCUSSION:
Paula Moya (English and CCSRE)
Roland Hsu (The Europe Center)

4:35 – 5:00 P.M. (25 MIN)